Course Description:

This is the successor course of the two-semester series of Japanese language courses designed for beginning students. It is designed to develop students' four language skills in listening, speaking, reading and writing. Moreover, this course will prepare students to demonstrate their proficiencies across the three communication modes: interpretive, interpersonal, and presentational.

Course Goals:

Students who successfully complete this course will demonstrate competency in the following general education core goals:

- Critical thinking skills – Students will engage in creative and/or innovative thinking, and/or inquiry, analysis, evaluation, synthesis of information, organizing concepts, and constructing solutions.
- Communication skills – Students will demonstrate effective written, oral, and visual communication.
- Teamwork – Students will demonstrate the ability to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal and consider different points of view.
- Social responsibility – Students will demonstrate intercultural competency and civic knowledge by engaging effectively in local, regional, national, and global communities.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- expand and comprehend ideas, questions, instructions, and requests in Japanese;
- construct and organize comprehensible written sentences, paragraphs, and brief compositions using accurate Japanese syntax and cohesive elements;

- engage in level-appropriate conversations about past, present, and future activities with an acceptable degree of spontaneity;
- foster curiosity, inquiry, and a lifelong interest in, and enjoyment of, Japanese language learning.

Course Requirements:

Attendance and Participation

This is an intensive language course and therefore it is very important that you put a great deal of effort into daily preparation and come to class and practice Japanese every day, and we will record your class performance at each class session.

Homework

You will have written homework due several times a week. Most homework comes from the Genki workbook. You are also required to complete additional vocabulary worksheets handed out during class. Credit will be based on completion and effort, including correcting your own work.

Chapter Tests

Please prepare for the written and listening tests after each chapter. Since these are formal assessments, the use of references or help from others is not permitted. The chapter tests will be administered during your usual class time. Make-up tests will only be allowed in the case of an emergency.

Writing Assignments

You will complete several writing assignments: a letter, a writing practice activity, and a long essay with a rewrite. Instructions for each assignment will be given in class. After I check the long essay assignment, you will revise and resubmit it. Your original score and score on the revision will both be calculated into your grade for the long essay writing assignment. Essay assignments that receive 90% or higher on the first attempt are not required to be revised. Late writing assignments must be submitted within 2 calendar days of the deadline to receive credit.

Final Exam

The final exam covers Genki Lessons 8-14.

Assessments: Activity	Percent Contribution

Accommodation Statement:

Academic accommodations may be made for any student who notifies the instructor of the need for an accommodation. It is imperative that you take the initiative to bring such needs to the instructor's attention, as he/she is not legally permitted to inquire. Students who may require assistance in emergency evacuations should contact the instructor regarding the most appropriate procedures to follow.

Academic Integrity Statement

Each student is expected to maintain the highest standards of honesty and integrity in academic and professional matters. The University reserves the right to take disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal, against any student who is found guilty of academic dishonesty or otherwise fails to meet the standards. Any student judged to have engaged in academic dishonesty in coursework may receive a reduced or failing grade for the work in question and/or for the course.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, dishonesty in quizzes, tests, or assignments; claiming credit for work not done or done by others; hindering the academic work of other students; misrepresenting academic or professional qualifications within or without the University; and nondisclosure or misrepresentation in filling out applications or other University records.

Other Items:*Attendance and Expectations

All students are required to attend every class, except in cases of illness, serious family concerns, or other major problems. We expect that students will arrive on time, be prepared to listen and participate as appropriate, and stay for the duration of a meeting rather than drift in or out casually. In short, we anticipate that students will show professors and fellow students maximum consideration by minimizing the disturbances that cause interruptions in the learning process. This means that punctuality is a must, that cellular phones be turned off, and that courtesy is the guiding principle in all exchanges among students and faculty. You will be responsible for the materials and ideas presented in the lecture.

Assignment Due Dates

All written assignments must be turned in at the time specified. Late assignments will not be accepted unless prior information has been obtained from the instructor. If you believe you have extenuating circumstances, please contact the instructor as soon as possible.

Make-Up Work

The instructor will not provide students with class information or make-up assignments/quizzes/exams missed due to an unexcused absence. Absences will be excused and assignments/quizzes/exams may be made up only with written documentation of an authorized absence. Every effort should be made to avoid scheduling appointments during class. An excused student is responsible for requesting any missed information from the instructor and setting up any necessary appointments outside of class.

Access, Special Needs, and Disabilities

Please notify the instructor at the start of the semester if you have any documented disabilities, a medical issue, or any special circumstances that require attention, and the school will be happy to assist.
